LANGDON BAPTISTS HEAR MISSIONARY

By G.E.W.

Miss Zaida England, Scandinavian Alliance Missionary from India (on furlough), will be present on Sunday evening, October 5, in the Langdon Baptist Church. She will show slides of the mission fields and relate some thrilling adventures that occurred in the Lords work there. A hearty welcome is extended to all to attend.

Harvest Thanksgiving service will be held in Christ Church, Indus, Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 3:00 p.m. Rev. D. B. Houghton B.A., of St. Augustine's, Ogden, will conduct the service.

Miss Verna Colwell spent the weekend in Calgary.

The farmers are hoping this warm spell continues so that they may get busy finishing up with the harvest, that was interrupted by the snow and rain.

We in Langdon are not yet accustomed to the early morning train leaving for Calgary, to say the least it is a welcome sight, and will be appreciated by all.

STANDARD FETES BENITA MCGOWAN

By Mrs. R. G.

Tuesday, September 23, a very lovely shower was held in the church basement honoring Miss Benita McGowan, an October bride-elect. The basement was decorated with white and pink streamers and a profusion of autumn flowers graced the tables.

Mrs. F. D. Knowlton was Mistress of Ceremonies and Mrs. Wm. Christensen proposed the toast to the bride-elect. After a short program a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, after which many lovely gifts were presented. Benita thanked her many friends for their gifts and well wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elias held "Open House" on Saturday, Sept. 27, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Westergaard's son was given the names Martin Geoffrey at a christening ceremony last Sunday morning. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Westergaard.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Jensen have moved into their new home.

HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING

President MacLeod's address Election of Officers.

A profitable meeting was held Monday evening when the H. & S. group met for the first time for the year 47-48 with Rev. D. A. Ford presiding.

Officers elected for the year were: Honorary presidents—Mr. MacLeod and Mr. D. Brook; Past President—Rev. D. A. Ford; President—Rev. A. A. Hamilton; 1st Vice—Mrs. Kennedy; 2nd Vice—Mrs. S. Korok; Secretary—Mrs. Wm. Risdon; Treasurer and membership Convenor—Mrs. Polley; Press—Mrs. Moore; Executive—Dr. Giffen and Messrs H. C. Willson and D. McMurray; Social Committee—Messdames A. Crellin, Gannon, Mott and Garrett; Programme Committee—School staff. President and Secretary.

A piano solo by Miss Rachel Risseau and two quartettes rendered by Misses Evelyn Korek, Verna Mae Gannon, Enid Baldwin, and Virginia Bower with Mrs. Polley accompanying were all pleasingly received.

A more active drive for paid subscriptions to the Home and School News was made, resulting very satisfactorily. This drive will be continued as it is felt the "news" is a very interesting informant in the larger field of the Association.

In a very stimulating talk Mr. Munroe MacLeod, Provincial President, said that each group should have some definite object in view, he urged that well planned programmes be arranged such as to hold the continued interest and so increase the attendance at meet.

CURLING RINK ON MOVE

HONESTY PAYS OFF

While many people may believe that honesty is its own reward, it's a good deal more than that in the eyes of small Alban Tew, who is "rich" these days because he believed in turning over his discovery.

Alban, like many other small boys, was hunting pirate treasure the other day in the wilderness off Hangdog Peak, when he really found some treasure, much to his surprise, and pirate treasure at that.

It developed that the treasure chest was the can pirated from the safe of the King Edward Hotel last Saturday night, containing a large number of cheques and other papers. On returning it to Mr. Sperros, Alban was overwelmed to receive as a reward, the huge sum of twenty dollars. So far, he still glows when he thinks about it.

BERRY VALE

Strathmore citizens walking on Second Avenue and Third Street have been watching with considerable interest for the past few days as operations in the moving of the curling rink near completion.

First move was made on Monday when about a quarter of the building was sawed away, and the moving crew began lifting the building out of its foundation in the ground. It was necessary at this point to run large numbers of angle braces to support the wall at the floor, since it is free floating at the bottom.

The concrete foundation has been finished for some time together with the centre piers, and is waiting now to receive the first section of the building.

It is estimated that it will require three more sections to move the rest of the building, and since it is rather slow procedure, no definite date has been established when this is likely to be through.

The building crew, Jimmy Swanson, Mark Lounsbury and Bill Naylor are busy trying to make the arrangements complete so that they can swing right ahead when the building arrives.

The Berry Vale Womens Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Hilton, September 24. There were ten members and four welcome visitors present. Roll call was Current Events, and we received several fines from members not having anything of interest to tell. For our program we had a Tea Towel sale, ten towels being made by hand, we made $7.40, and had several laughs during the sale. Our capable auctioneer being Mrs. Fred Hilton.

We've now decided to have our annual bazaar at the Serviceberry School November 7.

An article on Home Economics was read by Mrs. T. Taylor. It was a very interesting article on "How to Infuriate Your Husband."

Meeting was adjourned and a very delicious lunch was served by hostess assisted by Mrs. D. Osborne and Mrs. A. Wegener.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Kearns October 7. Roll call will be "Our Beauty Spot in Canada", and for our program we're having a "Guessing Contest."

RESCUE WHEAT

Over a thousand farmers in the sawfly infested area of Southern Alberta each bought 10 bushels of Rescue wheat last fall to increase for their own use. Reports to date show that the performance of this variety in 1947 has been generally satisfactory. True it is that Rescue will only grade 3 Northern but the fact that losses from sawfly are usually very light as compared with ordinary varieties makes it a desirable wheat to grow in the recognized sawfly area.

Rescue is not recommended in areas where sawfly is not a problem.

There will be a considerable quantity of Rescue wheat available for distribution this fall and it is anticipated that the demand for it will be high. Enquiries are already being received at the Station. In 1946 seventeen farmers located at various points in the sawfly area of Southern Alberta were selected to grow Rescue wheat for the original distribution. These farmers again have Rescue wheat in varying amounts for distribution this fall. The Lethbridge Experimental Station will be glad to forward inquiries to the nearest source of Rescue wheat seed.

To obtain a more complete evaluation of Rescue wheat the Station would appreciate receiving from those who grew the variety in 1947 comments on its performance this year.

Cripps No. 2 Man

Creation of the new office of minister of economic affairs in Britain's government, and the appointment to the post of Sir Stafford Cripps, will, without a doubt, evoke considerable interest in many areas.

Prime Minister Attlee has made sweeping changes in his government in the past few weeks, and we feel that this is the crowning touch.

We're not at all sure that Mr. Attlee has the genius of Mr. Churchill, or the fire of Mr. Bevin, or the determination of some of his other contemporaries. We have heard him described as almost colorless.

But every move made seems to indicate even more clearly that Mr.

Attlee is the only man in the Labor government. Mr. Attlee's recent changes have been sweeping, even ruthless. Yet we are sure that this latest move will meet with rather wide support from the voters at large. Mr. Attlee's choice of men has been excellent, and his appraisal of the need seemingly faultless.

It is a truism, of course, to suggest that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, and that Mr. Cripps will have to prove himself, before Attlee's stock will go up, but it is the none-the-less certain hat not only he British people, but those of almost the entire world will watch his movements with great interest.

Why Can't We...

By Joseph Lister Rutledge

The Wall Street Journal, in a rather petulant aside, protests the incessant nature of questions that run like this:

"We spent hundreds of billions for war, why can't we spend a few millions for this or that? Brought down to everyday experience the question," says the Journal, "seems akin to this:

"We spent $1,500 to have the hospital cure mother, why can't sister have $20 for a fur coat?" The answer is the same in both cases; the more you take from your purse the less remains."

You see, it isn't as simple as saying that if Canada can spend 15 or 16 billion for war, she can spend as much for this or that. And the reason for that isn't only that we have already spent our 15 billion. It's because there is nothing else that we are certain about as we were of our war aims. Sure, peace is a good thing but there are almost as many views of how to achieve it as there are persons. So before we go on with the—"If you can do this, you can do this, you can do that" argument, we had better begin counting noses. They are closer to the nub of the argument than are the dollars. We can't spend as much money for cancer research as we can for whiskey because there are more people who like a drink than there are afraid of cancer. Maybe it doesn't make sense, and yet it does, for opinions are the real coin.

When enough people think one way the coin will always be available.

Those Feed and Seed Supplies

Alberta farmers are warned by the Field Crops Branch to make sure of seed grain requirements for spring and feed grain requirements for the next year.

Those who have not yet threshed their crops may consider this warning untimely, says the Department of Agriculture, but the fact is that no one can afford to delay this matter longer than he must. Forest, drought and hail have left some districts without a crop. Others will have insufficient feed, or crops

So They Say...

"While wheat may be the staff of life, rye surely is the gold-headed cane".

Big New Industry?

We might duplicate the huge newspaper in this country and incidentally create a great new source of American dollars if the United States would cut its duties on line paper, suggests The Financial Post. It argues editorially: "Newsprint is a perfect example of 'continental' development of industry in North America, mutually advantageous to the United States and Canada. What made it possible was the elimination before World War I of the U.S. duty on newsprint paper.

"Canada continues to run behind in its U.S. dollar account, gravely threatening the economies of both Canada and the United States. We need more bold and imaginative planning, applied in industries other than newspaper."

"A perfect opportunity for such mutual planning exists. It is in the 'book' and 'fine' paper industry, which is cleanly split by the 49th parallel."

"Three facts stand out:

1. The United States' demand for paper, particularly for the magazine and commercial printing industries, is growing rapidly. It is not likely that the U.S. paper industry can supply that demand ten years from now.

2. The U.S. industry is only able to produce its present total of paper because it gets pulpwood and wood pulp from Canada, one a raw product, one semimanufactured, both returning fewer dollars per ton of natural resources than they should.

3. Canada is capable of great expansion in its production of finer grades of paper while the United States is not.

"The facts all point to the need for joint action between Ottawa and Washington to wipe out tariffs on grades of printing paper other than newsprint and thus enable the book paper industry to develop in Canada as the newsprint industry has. New mills are needed. They should be built here in Canada where the wood grows and the rivers run."

that are unsatisfactory for seed. This means that there will be a heavy demand within the province for both seed and feed.

The demand outside the province is also heavy. Large quantities of grain for seed and feed are shipped to Eastern Canada each year. The demand will be greater than usual this year as a result of an unfavourable season in the east. This demand will not wait until spring.

If in past years you have been able to fill your requirements as they arose you should recognize that such a procedure may prove disappointing this year. Make arrangements now. If there is feed and seed within trucking distance, make sure of your supplies before it is too late.

The Goal for Farm Prices

W. A. Moisey, District Agriculturist at Camrose, has submitted for our consideration an article "Needed...A Better Goal than Parity" which was published in the Iowa Farm Economist. It is a summary of 18 prize-winning papers in a farm policy contest conducted by the American Farm Economics Association.

Is seeking stability for themselves. To achieve stability farmers must deal in relationships between two sets of prices — those received for their products and the prices of farm production materials.

INCREASE FREIGHT RATES

Canadian railways have announced an increase in export freight rates on grain eastward from Fort William and Port Arthur. Anticipated increases are as follows:

Wheat, an increase from 5.3c a bushel to 7.9c.

Oats, an increase from 11.13c per 100 pounds to 13.50c.

Corn and rye, an increase from 9.79c per 100 pounds to 13.55c.

Barley and buckwheat, an increase from 11.58c per 100 pounds to 15.75c.

At the present time an increase in the export wheat freight rate from the head of the lakes eastward will not effect returns to the producer in Western Canada. The reason therefore is that wheat importing nations are buying wheat on a Fort William basis and pay from that point.

This situation is different from practices prevailing in normal times. Ordinarily wheat for export to Europe is sold on a Liverpool basis, with the cost of carrying being borne by the producer. It may be expected that when normal times return the cost of the increase in railway freights will be paid by the producer.

Nothing has as yet been said about the export freight rate to the Pacific coast, a matter which vitally concerns grain producers in Alberta. At the present time the freight rate on wheat from Calgary to Vancouver is 12c a bushel as compared with 15c to Fort William. For some years past, if such proved advantageous to them, Alberta farmers have been granted the privilege of the Vancouver freight rate by the Wheat Board whether their wheat was shipped east or west.

Grain rates in Western Canada are based largely on the Crownest Pass agreement, entered into in 1897. That agreement between the Canadian government and the Canadian Pacific Railway provided for Continued on Page Seven the guaranteeing of a subsidy of approximately $3½ million for the building of a railway line from Lethbridge through the Crownest Pass into British Columbia. As part of the agreement the C.P.R. was to submit to maximum freight rates on wheat and wheat products eastbound, and farm implements and other commodities westbound.

In 1902 an agreement was entered into between the government of Manitoba and the Canadian Northern Railway in which the freight rates were to be a little lower than under the Crownest Pass agreement. From 1902 until 1919 western grain producers had the benefit of the rates provided by the Manitoba agreement, but the Crownest Pass agreement was still intact.

Rising railway costs during and after World War I resulted in the federal government suspending the operation of the Crownest Pass agreement from July 6, 1919 until July 6, 1922. The government then appointed a special committee to inquire into western railway freight rates, and the result was a recommendation that the Crownest Pass rates on wheat and wheat products eastbound should be restored. The reason the rates westbound were not restored was due to the fact that western members of the committee could not get sufficient support to get them through.
